Belgium's Workers Rebel Against the Law-Making Power.

A Strike Unlike Any That Europe Has Ever Seen Before.

POPULAR UPRISE FOR THE EXTENSION OF THE SUFFRAGE.

Meeting of 15,000 Workmen Held To-day in a Town Near Brussels.—The streets of the Capital Filled With Angry Multitudes—Frequent Collisions With Police and Soldiers—The Dynamite Bomb Plays Its Part—France and Germany May Be Embroiled.

BRUSSELS, April 18.—Last night passed by far more quietly than the authorities expected, but nevertheless the outlook is still threatening. Dispatches from all parts of the kingdom tell of the working people being disquieted. Disturbances occurred in several places during the night, but there was no concerted attempt to rebel against the King. The movement is directed entirely against the Chamber of Deputies and the Ministers who oppose the workmen's demands for the right to vote when they reach legal age without any property qualification whatsoever.

The King, it is known, is in favor of a wide extension of the suffrage and the crowds of excited workmen who are now demanding what they believe to be their right have nothing against him personally. Impartial observers of the situation readily find sympathy with the strikers.

Belgium is, with the exception of Russia, perhaps the only country where there is absolutely no law protecting the workman from the greed of his employer. The Belgian workmen have been within the past ten years their brethren in other countries placed under the protection of special laws enacted for their benefit, and have seen employers held to a strict liability when these laws were violated. The Belgians have had nothing and the bourgeoisie class which rules the country evidently intend that they shall have nothing if they can prevent it. Hence in their desire to assert their manhood and secure their rights, the spectacle presents itself of a strike to obtain the right to elect representatives among the law makers.

Were the strikers armed and disciplined there is no question that the industrial revolution now shaking the country would quickly become a bloody one. As it is the strikers have in many instances routed the armed police, and have not hesitated to attack the soldiers.

The peace offensive of Belgium, officers and men, is 48,491, exclusive of the civic guards, numbering 4,647 men, and it will be seen that the disorganized mobs of workmen, only a few of whom are armed, have little chance of overthrowing the Government by resorting to attacks upon the troops. Yet with their passions inflamed by the words of their leaders the strikers do not hesitate to fight, and unless extreme steps are taken against them the trouble will result disastrously to the trade and commerce of the country.

THREATENING AT ANTWERP.—In Antwerp the outlook is more threatening than it was yesterday and this despite the fact that the Government has taken precautions to preserve the peace. Among the more prominent of the agitators in Antwerp are a number of Anarchists, who have been particularly obnoxious to the police the day they were placed under arrest.

The striking dock laborers began their disorderly demonstrations this morning. They took possession of the docks and marched along the water front, attacking the men who were employed in loading and unloading many of them to quit. One captain of a vessel from which the men had been driven away protested to the leaders of the rioters, whereupon the latter threatened to kill him and forced him to flee. The police in force were finally ordered to disperse the rioters. A short conflict ensued, during which the police used their clubs and revolvers, and finally the mob scattered.

In Brussels the ferment continues with no sign of abatement. The streets are filled with crowds of excited workmen, and a general feeling of uneasiness prevails. It was the intention of the strikers to hold a general demonstration to-day in the park at St. Gilles, two miles south of Brussels. This place had been selected for the meeting in consequence of the order prohibiting demonstrations in Brussels, but the instructions issued by the Governor of the Province of Brabant have put a check upon the proposed meeting. A strong force of troops is in possession of the park and the demonstration will not be allowed.

15,000 MEN AT A MEETING.—Many of the strikers in this city are determined to hold meetings, despite the instructions of the Governor of the Province to the contrary. They do not, however, intend to hold their demonstrations within the city limits. They select suburban villages, where they trust they will not be interfered with by the authorities. One such meeting was held this morning at Molenbeek, a short distance from Brussels. Fifteen thousand workmen gathered at this place and many incendiary speeches were made. The speakers pointed out the wrongs under which the laborers, farmers, mechanics, factory hands and other operatives labor and called upon them to assert their rights. The meeting was most enthusiastic and great significance attached to it. The immense crowd of workmen swore they would sacrifice life if it were necessary to obtain the rights of manhood—suffrage. The meeting broke up without interference from the authorities and most of the crowd returned to their homes. The newspapers supporting the Government affect to treat the movement with contempt. To-day the strikers attempted to compel them to stop publication, but in this city they were unsuccessful.

Burgomaster Koekberg of St. Gilles refused to prohibit the meeting in the park to-day and as a result the Governor of Brabant took the affair into his own hands. He ordered troops to be sent to St. Gilles to prevent any further demonstration of the strikers. This seemed to the strikers a slight attempt to make.

YESTERDAY'S BOMB AND BATTLES.—Early yesterday the Petet Wasines Church at Mons was burned by the explosion of a bomb. This seemed to the strikers a slight attempt to make.

And Was Not Satisfied With an Apology.—The Widow of the Duke of Sutherland Goes to Holloway for Six Weeks in Spite of Tears and Her Friends' Indignation.—Her Stepson's Counsel Says the Verdict is Most Just.

LONDON, April 18.—The dowager Duchess of Sutherland was to-day committed to Holloway prison under sentence of imprisonment for six weeks imposed by Sir Francis Jeune, President of the Court of Probate, for contempt of court. Notwithstanding that the imprisonment of a British Duchess in a common jail is unprecedented, the Duchess of Sutherland did not excite any great surprise among the public and it had been anticipated that the court would take severe action in view of the flagrant contempt with which the Duchess was charged. The name of the dowager Duchess is Mary Caroline and she was a widow at the time of her marriage to the late Duke of Sutherland, her previous husband having been Arthur Kildersley Blair.

She was the younger daughter of the late Rev. Mitchell, D.D., principal of Hartford College, Oxford. The late Duke himself was a widower at the time of his marriage and had children and grandchildren, the eldest surviving child being the present Duke of Sutherland.

The first wife of the late Duke of Sutherland died Nov. 25, 1888. The late Duke was at the time of his death a bachelor and the present dowager Duchess, and this circumstance rapidly ripened when the late Duke became a widower. The late Duke and Mrs. Blair were married in Florida during a visit to America on the 4th of March, 1889.

The news of the marriage was received with disappointment by Mrs. Blair, who had children and grandchildren, the eldest surviving child being the present Duke of Sutherland. The late Duke and Mrs. Blair were married in Florida during a visit to America on the 4th of March, 1889.

When the case came up to-day an affidavit was presented in behalf of the Duchess setting forth that she had burned a document which she had been permitted to inspect. The Dowager Duchess, and her friends, had been permitted to inspect a document which she had burned. The Dowager Duchess, and her friends, had been permitted to inspect a document which she had burned.

Justice Jeune then imposed the sentence of imprisonment for contempt of court. The Dowager Duchess, and her friends, had been permitted to inspect a document which she had burned. The Dowager Duchess, and her friends, had been permitted to inspect a document which she had burned.

CHEATING CHARGED

Ugly Statements About the Recent Medical Examinations.

ALLOTTED OFFERS OF THE QUESTIONS TO STUDENTS FOR MONEY.

Dr. Mudd Says That Two Students Have Informed Him That Such Offers Were Made to Them—An Interview With Dr. Finney—A Medical Row.

Ever since and even before the examinations for assistant physicians at the city institutions were held reports that the examinations were not on the "square" have been going the rounds among the medical fraternity.

Before the examination Dr. O. H. Hughes of the Barnes Medical College sent a letter to the Health Commissioner, stating that he understood certain colleges received information of what the questions would be. This raised a good sized row in itself and Dr. Brennan replied in a rather saucy letter to Dr. Hughes. Since then the rumors have been very thick about the examination being crooked. Students of the St. Louis Medical College have been reported as saying that they were offered the examination questions for a money consideration. To-day the learned men of the medical profession who constitute the faculty of the St. Louis Medical College had been imitating the politician's method and had gotten together in caucus to protest against the result of the examinations. The reason for the protest being that the Marion Sims College had received nearly half the appointments of young physicians to the city hospitals.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.
Dr. H. H. Mudd of the St. Louis Medical College was seen to-day and asked about the caucus. He had been seen last night at a caucus held in the doctor's office, Jefferson avenue and Locust street.

"Doctor, what about the caucus which was held in your office to protest against the examination of students held a few weeks ago?" was asked the doctor.

"Caucus" and a mild, bland smile spread over the doctor's features. "There was no caucus here."

"Well, doctor, was there any informal gathering of the faculty of the St. Louis Medical College to discuss the question of looking into the examination?"

"No, sir, there was none. I know of no caucus or informal gathering for any such purpose."

"Isn't there a sort of bad feeling in the St. Louis faculty over the result and the fact that the Marion Sims College received fifteen appointments?"

"Yes, there is," and the doctor seemed relieved that the caucus question had been dropped. "I think the question of how the Sims should have had five students pass the examinations. But strange things happen every day. Perhaps some of the students may have had the questions beforehand. I know of cases where students were offered to students for a consideration."

"What cases, doctor?"

"Well, two of the students of the St. Louis College told me that they had been offered the questions for a consideration."

"Did they accept them?"

"Not sir," said the doctor. "They did not."

"Did they try the examination?"

"They did."

"Doctor, would you kindly give me the names of the students who were offered the questions?" asked the reporter.

"No, sir, I will not. I do not feel at liberty to," and the doctor made a motion as if he would leave the room. He was about to go when he was called back by the reporter.

"Before parting the doctor stated that he did not believe that any member of the Board of Health had given out the questions. But refused to state who he thought did it."

A CALL MADE UPON DR. SEWARD FINNEY.
Secretary of the Board of Health, and Dr. Mudd's secretary, Dr. Seward Finney, was offered for sale imparted to him.

"I don't care what anybody says," said Dr. Finney. "I did not see the questions until the night of the examination."

"But doctor," Dr. Hughes wrote to the Health Commissioner about this very same thing and say he had heard that certain colleges had an advance of the questions."

"Yes, he did, and while we are about it, Dr. Hughes may as well be shown up in his true colors. Dr. Hughes wrote to the Health Commissioner and said he understood that some of the other colleges had an advance of the questions."

A Terrible Explosion of Glycerine Kills Two Men Near Lima, O.

LIMA, O., April 18.—A terrible explosion of glycerine has just occurred at the High Explosive Co.'s magazine two miles from this city. Clark Robinson's head was torn off; Benjamin Dowe, the man who had a huge gash blown in his side at a previous explosion three months ago, was blown forty feet and so badly injured that he died before he was taken to the ambulance. The force of the explosion shook houses and broke windows two miles from the scene.

The cause of the explosion was that a run of glycerine caught fire from the friction and before the men could escape it exploded.

Two men, H. Myers, one of the pioneer glycerine men of the country, and son of the man who first made glycerine in the United States, were the only ones who escaped.

He was making glycerine in a very inferior quality and it is only a question of time until it explodes. He proved his faith in his statements by recently resigning a position paying him several hundred dollars a year to accept an ordinary clerkship.

W. S. Robinson, a Negro, Charged With the Ruin of a Young Negro Girl.

A warrant was issued this morning for the arrest of Winfield S. Robinson, a negro, living at 1122 Morgan street, charging him with being criminally intimate with a 15-year-old colored girl, Emma Nichols, who lives at 2008 North Fourteenth street, and who, it is claimed, has been seduced by Robinson. Robinson is a frequent visitor at the Nichols' home. He is claimed, by promising to make her a present of a necklace, he procured her consent and accomplished his purpose. This intimacy, it is alleged, was subsequently renewed on several other occasions. The child's age nullifies her consent and makes the offense one of criminal assault. The family secured a confession from the girl when they discovered her condition, but took no steps in the matter as they believed that Robinson would adopt her child.

A brother of the girl's sister, John A. C. Lucas, who is making an application for the warrant a durometer looking negroes introduced himself as Robinson's wife entered Mr. Estep's office and made a long plea for the arrest of the girl's mother. Her story was that on Saturday last, three days after the birth of the child, Robinson had brought the newly born babe to her home in a basket and left it on her doorstep. Her husband, John Robinson, who is a Presbyterian minister and has been married for seventeen years, he acknowledges the offense.

AT ADLAI STEVENSON'S HOME.
The Republicans Win in Spite of Bolters and of Charges.

Bloomington, Ill., April 18.—The municipal campaign closed to-day with the city election. The campaign, though conducted with party nominees, was waged principally on enforcement of the laws. D. T. Foster, the present incumbent of the office of Mayor, and whose administration has been very offensive to the better class of citizens, was the Republican nominee, while George L. Parker, a wealthy and influential lumberman, was the Democratic candidate. The latter was pledged to an enforcement of the city ordinances with special regard to gambling and immoral resorts, which the former, the Republican nominee, was running upon the "wide open" policy and won by a small plurality.

The Fifth Ward, which gave Cleveland a plurality for President of 276, gave Foster (Rep.) a plurality of 88. The campaign has been bitter in many respects. The Leader, which for years has been the municipal administration organ, sided from the party and supported Foster, the Democratic candidate. Its editorial columns contained daily "roasts" for the Republican nominee and even went so far as to insinuate that he was receiving money monthly from gamblers and light women for not enforcing the laws. In the face of such a campaign he was elected, but his majority of a year ago was triflingly trimmed down. The Democrats gained an Alderman in the Fourth Ward by the election of Wm. Schultz by a majority over Crawford (Rep.) of 14. The Democratic leaders are greatly disappointed over the result, as they hoped to be able to pay Vice-President Stevenson the tribute of turning his Republican home into a Democratic city.

A TRIO OF WINNERS.

Boundless, Lookout and Calhoun Showing Great Form.

CUSHING & ORTH HAVE THE EARLY STAKES AT THEIR MERCY.

Lookout Seems a Dangerous Derby Candidate—Solly Smith's Victory—Ring Gossip—The Ann Arbor Boys at Sportsman's Park—International Regatta Entries—Sporting News.

The declarations last week in the American Derby, the richest stake event to be decided upon the American turf this season, were comparatively few, but they furnished some surprises. The greatest in Western turf circles was the withdrawal of Calhoun, who had been backed down to 20 to 1. According to his performance last season the son of Buchanan and Lucy failed to outclass both Lookout and Boundless, his stable companions, both of whom were left in. Cushing & Orth, who own the trio, however, evidently thought his chances less good than those of either of his stable companions. All three of the horses have placed stakes to the stable's credit, although the legitimate season is only two weeks old. Boundless was the first to earn brackets, winning the Arkansas Derby from a field that included Calhoun, Buck McCann, Francis Pope and others. This race must have been run on its merits as far as the Cushing & Orth pair is concerned, after all, though at the time many thought the stable won with Boundless, merely because it was not necessary to go to the front with Calhoun. Then the latter came along and captured the famous Tennessee Derby at Memphis. His performance at this occasion caused the knowing ones to figure out that if he could walk away from his field, ordinary thought it was, how much better must Boundless be, to say nothing of Lookout, who had been reserved all the while. The son of Buchanan and Lucy went to the post for the first time this season at Memphis yesterday in the Gibson stake handicap at one mile, and with 118 up simply walked away from a field that included Buck McCann, Oliver, Revenue and others, covering the distance in 1:44, the best performance ever made at the track by a 3-year-old. This achievement stamps the colt as a good one sure enough, and the talk around the local turf resorts last night and this morning was "look out for Lookout" at Louisville and Chicago. The colt earned nine brackets out of twenty starts last season. His winnings altogether amounted to some $5,000 in stakes and purses.

LONGSTREET SOLD FOR $25,000.
NEW YORK, April 18.—Richard Croker has purchased the great race horse, Longstreet, from Michael F. Dwyer. The price is said to have been $25,000.

Longstreet is an aged brown horse, by Longfellow out of Semper Idem, and was the great savior's successor as the King of the American Turf. His great work was accomplished during the years of 1889 and 1890, when he won the Kentucky two starts last season were in the Brooklyn and Brookdale handicaps, and on both occasions he ran miserably. The Fair Grounds and James Hotel stakes, the Coney Island cup, the Ocean stakes and the Monmouth Park cup. He is entered to start at Elizabeth to day. Some reports have it that he will hardly do much campaigning this season, while others have it just the opposite. Croker evidently bought him more with the intention of utilizing him in the stud at his Belle Meade farm than for racing him.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.
Starter Dick Dwyer received a dispatch from Mike Donovan, the well-known Gloucester turfman, stating that he would arrive at the course across the river with his string the early part of the present week.

Dan Honig wired Capt. Bellairs from the Elizabeth track yesterday asking that fifteen stalls be reserved for his string of horses at the St. Louis Jockey Club. A portion of Honig's stable, including John and his wife, who were purchased at New Orleans recently, Sister Lona, Jerret, Rose Howard and others, is now campaigning at the East Side. Honig's string was one of the largest winners at Gloucester during the past winter season. His performance at the Fair Grounds in the selling scramble at the Fair Grounds, Starter Dick Dwyer received a dispatch from Mike Donovan, the well-known Gloucester turfman, stating that he would arrive at the course across the river with his string the early part of the present week.

THE RING.
Mike Mooney has received word from Chicago from the managers of Jim Murphy that his terms of $800 for a six-round set to with Murphy at Battery D had been accepted, the match to come off about May 1. Jim Murphy is regarded as the best three times man in Chicago, has never been defeated by any one in his class. He has fought a seventy-two round draw with Tom Ryan and stood before Ryan ten rounds about three months ago, with honors even, however. Mooney's St. Louis friends think he is "right in it" with Murphy.

THE SMITH-WILLIAMS FIGHT.
"Mysterious" Billy Smith added another victory to his credit last night by putting out Tom Williams of Australia in two rounds at the Coney Island Athletic Club. The fight was of the hurricane order and very savage. Williams fought hard and game, but he could not land his blows, while every time Smith led he soaked his antagonist on the face or neck. Smith was knocked down three times in the second round, and finished with a right-hand swing on the back of the head, which sent him sprawling on the floor. He was unable to get up and an opportunity to meet Jack Dempsey, but the experts claim that the Nonpareil will be too much for him. The preliminary bout was between Johnny Van Heest and Danny Russell. Van Heest was given the decision after three rounds. Frank Kelly, at the Pacific Club, in San Francisco, in thirty-six rounds, Billy Armstrong, at the Occidental Club, San Francisco, in thirteen rounds; Tommy West, at the Pacific Athletic Club, Portland, Ore., in eleven rounds; Charley Gleason and Australian Billy Maber, before the same club, in respectively three and a half and twenty-six rounds. It was at this club that Billy fought his now famous four-round draw with Jack Dempsey. His greatest victory was obtained when he defeated Danny Needham in four-round bouts at the Pacific Club, in San Francisco, Dec. 14, 1892.

THE AMATEUR BOXING TOURNAMENT.
The amateur boxing tournament given at Entertainment Hall last evening by the Mount City Amateur Athletic Club was an unqualified success. The audience was large and was composed principally of business men with a sprinkling of lawyers and politicians, who came to see how a first-class boxing entertainment could be run under respectable auspices. Every one went away satisfied. The results of the tournament were:

Event 1—Lightweight: Frank O'Donnell, Business Men's Gymnasium; Ed Rapke, Mount City Athletic Club. Four rounds. Decision to Rapke.
Event 2—Featherweight: Frank Parsons, Mount City Club; Henry Haley, unattached. Parsons was given the decision.
Event 3—Heavyweight: J. L. Fogarty, Business Men's Gymnasium; L. H. Crox, Jacksonville, Ill. Four rounds. Decision to Fogarty.
Event 4—Lightweight: Ed Sharp, unattached; Otto Teasmer, Culture Club. Four rounds. Decision to Teasmer.
Event 5—Heavyweight: James Conlon, Business Men's Club; R. H. Cooper, Merchants' Club. Conlon won the decision after three rounds.
Event 6—Featherweight: Charles H. Parker, Mount City Club; S. C. Sparks, Merchants' Club. Parker knocked out after three rounds.
Event 7—Lightweight: Harry W. James, Athletic Club; Harry McCoy, Merchants' Club. Decision to Winsty after three rounds.
Event 8—Heavyweight: Ed Jones, Merchants' Club; J. C. Reinger, Business Men's Gymnasium. Three rounds. Decision to Reinger.
Event 9—Middleweight: William Weathers, Mount City Club; J. C. Sparks, Merchants' Club. Weathers was knocked out in the fourth round.
Event 10—Lightweight: City Robins, Mount City Athletic Club; G. B. Schriber, Business Men's Club. Decision to Robins after three rounds.

THE OAR.
Interest in the big international regatta at Lake Geneva on Aug. 15 is growing apace. Although no official programme has yet been published clubs all over the country are promising crews for the various events. St. Louis will be well represented as both the Modocs and Westerns have crews in training for the event. The biggest event of the regatta will probably be the open eight-oared shell race. Among the crews who have promised entries to this event are: Bradford of Bradford, Pa.; Passaic of Newark, N. J.; Atlantic of Philadelphia; Boston; Dauntless of New York; Worcester, Mass.; Williams of Chicago; the University of St. Louis in the senior fours the Delaware, Modocs, St. Johns of New Orleans, Westerns of St. Louis, Pullmans of Union and Iroquois of Chicago and Burlington, Dayton and Dubuque of the Iowa State Association are entered. That the Westerns and Modocs meet there is apt to be some hard pulling war something more than the prize as an incentive.

THE WESTERN'S REVIVAL.
The twenty-third annual revival of the Western Rowing Club, which takes place May 7, will be one of the grandest in its history. On that day the club will wipe out all debt on the club-house, a matter of which they feel very proud. On that day there will be several races, among which Mr. Teasmer will row one of the strongest four-oared crews in the club. The Westerns' large fleet of boats is being increased by several new shells and a barge, to accommodate the rapidly increasing membership, the number being seventy-two since the first of the year. The regatta are being held by Wm. Plais of Philadelphia, who expect to turn them out by the 10th of May. They will be the finest boats of their kind on the Mississippi.

THE WHEEL.
The Cleveland Wheel Club, after relinquishing its dates of Aug. 30 and 31 in the Western Rowing Club, has decided to hold its annual regatta on the 1st and 2nd of September. The club has been in a straight line on the surface would be carried completely overboard. Mr. Fox is not a racer, but he succeeded in convincing the great road race of the correctness of his views and the banking will be made accordingly. The grade is to be one foot in five.

THE GUN.
The Compton Hill Gun Club will hold a meeting to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock at Hawkins Bros., 317 Pine street. The object of this meeting will be to arrange matters for the coming season. It is one of the most important changes in the management of the club, which will give entire satisfaction to everybody. All members are requested to be present. All shooters who are interested in trap-shooting, especially novices, are invited to attend.

THOUGHT THE DREXELS FRIENDLY. Archie McLeod Tells the Tale of His Recent Reconciliation.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 18.—The resignation of Archibald A. McLeod of the Reading Road Receptiveness is the start of another fight. In speaking of the Reading troubles Mr. McLeod said last night:

"The Drexels were approached in London by a representative of Speyer & Co., who asked them to take a part of the loan. The Drexels refused to handle any of the property under any circumstances, and after some talking the raid began on Reading stock. Our securities were driven down until there was nothing possible but a receivership. Mr. Drexel was the only man who told me to resign and his word amounted almost to a command."

Mr. McLeod feels he has been rather ill-treated in the matter, and had, up to almost the end, thought the Drexels friendly.

Charles Longfellow Cremated. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 18.—The remains of Charles Longfellow, eldest son of the deceased poet, who died at Cambridge, Mass., last Thursday, were cremated at German town, Pa., yesterday afternoon. There were no services at the crematory and H. H. Dana of Boston alone witnessed the incineration.

What a Lovely Bonnet.

Now don't think we're in the millinery business or contemplating running a Fashion Bazaar! A very handsome and well-dressed lady just passed the door, and her spring bonnet was a dream of loveliness. Her husband, however, who walked beside her, still wore his last season's suit, and the contrast was so great 'twixt 'em, we say with jolly Jack Falstaff: "What fools these mortals be!"

THERE'S NO EXCUSE

For you, gentlemen, to go poorly clad for our magnificent stock of Spring Suits and Overcoats is at hand ready for your selection, and a man who will wear a last season's Suit or Overcoat now, with Humphrey's low prices and grand assortment staring him in the face, is fit for "Treason, stratagem and spoil."
